

About Dollars for Scholars

Dollars for Scholars' mission is to help raise scholarship funds and assist Edgewood High School students in paying for postsecondary education.

Through the efforts of volunteer board members and the support of community organizations and contributors, Dollars for Scholars provides critical financial assistance and sends a powerful message to all students about the importance and value of a postsecondary education.

Dollars for Scholars is the largest, grassroots, volunteer-driven scholarship organization in the United States. Dollars for Scholars' parent organization, Scholarship America®, has consistently been rated as a top education charity. This means that money goes where it belongs - right to the students. It really is local philanthropy at its best. Over 95% of every dollar contributed benefits students from the local community.
